What Days/Times Work Best for Your Animal to Have a Reiki Session: (For regular JDPC dog daycare customers, you may request a daycare or boarding visit)

Referred by (if anyone):

1. Is your animal nervous around strangers? If so, please describe.
2. What is your animal's experience with energy sessions or energy body work (such as Reiki, acupuncture, chiropractic, or osteopathy)?
3. Does your animal have any treated or untreated medical conditions? Please describe.
4. List all prescription and over-the-counter medications or supplements your animal is taking currently:
5. What caused you to seek out a Reiki session for your animal at this time?
6. Have you ever had a (human) Reiki session or other energy body work?
7. Is there anything else I should know before my session with your animal?

I understand that Reiki is a simple, gentle hands-on energy technique that is used for stress reduction and relaxation. I understand that Reiki practitioners do not diagnose conditions nor do they prescribe or perform medical treatment, prescribe substances, nor interfere with the treatment of a licensed medical professional. I understand that Reiki does not take the place of medical care. It is recommended that I see a licensed veterinarian or other health care professional for any physical or psychological ailment my dog may have. I understand that Reiki can complement any medical or psychological care my dog may be receiving. My decision to pursue Reiki for my animal is voluntary, and I release Just Dogs PlayCare and/or the Reiki practitioner from liability and assume full responsibility thereof.
